

Amancio Rioja DOCa

Spain, Rioja

Vintage: 2017

Appellation: Rioja DOCa

Type: Red wine

Grapes: 100 % Tempranillo

Systembolaget's Art No: 54298

About the Product: Amancio is available at the Monopoly.

Producer: Viñedos Sierra Cantabria

About the Producer: Viñedos Sierra Cantabria was born in the family Eguren desire for wine of the highest quality and the search for new tastes and new classics.

In order to produce great wines from unique and exclusive wineries, their hard work began in the vineyards of La Llanes, Los Terreros, Jararte, El Bosque and La Vegailla.

Viñedos Sierra Cantabria enjoys a variety of vineyards: from new plantings to the century-old vines, from the bare slopes near the river Ebro to the flat river banks. All the vineyards is located in the Rioja Sonsierra where the conditions for wine growth are excellent.

The wine cellar was built with stone from the family Eguren own property, as a tribute to the earth as both they and their country is a part of. From these vineyards, this beautiful wine cellars they bred the profoundly characteristic wine Sierra Cantabria Cuvee, Sierra Cantabria Organza, Sierra Cantabria Colección Privada, Finca El Bosque and Amancio, all under the guidance of the oenologist Marcus Eguren.

Packaging: Bottle

Quantity per box: separate or 6 bottles in a woodenbox

Volume: 750 ml

Vintage: 2017

Alcohol: 14,5 %

Serving Tempeture: 16
-18 °C

Color: Dark red

Aroma: Intense cherry. Notes of ripe fruit, blackberry, black cherry, currant and fig, with mineral, licorice traces and dark-roasted flavours.

Taste: On the palate is powerful, flavoursome with tannins of oak still marked against those of fruit, hints of great length, mineral back aroma with traces of ripe fruit.

Alcohol: 14,5 %

Goes Well With: 🐷 🐮 🐏 🐱

Aging: 24 months on French Bordelaise