About the Producer: At Can Bas we express ourselves in a style that is both honest and modern, these values go to the very core of our essence. We create excellence from the roots of the earth, combined with our deep knowledge and experience.

Pere acquired CAN BAS in 2011. The initial aim was based on preserving and disseminating the historical legacy of one of the most important vineyard estates in the Penedès wine appellation. This is coupled with the desire to protect this estate, steeped in history, for future generations. CAN BAS is committed to the land, to its people and to its heritage. It is also facing up to the challenge of developing this sleeping beauty of the past, in order to make authentic terroir wines.
