

Whitley Neill Blood Orange

HALEWOOD
Wines & Spirits

England

Typ: Sprit

Systembolagets artnr: 81292

Om produkten:

En handgjord gin av exceptionell kvalitet, som är fyllt av en söt citrussmak av sicilianska blodapelsiner. Ljusa, saftiga aromer leder till en ren, citrusgin och i varje droppe finns en len, krispig smak.

Producent: Halewood International

Om producenten: Halewood Wines & Spirits has grown from a small a start-up, to becoming the UK's largest independent drinks manufacturer and distributor by volume.

In the last three years, the company has embarked upon a huge transformational change. It has created an artisanal spirits and craft beer portfolio via acquisition and organic growth. This has propelled the business forward by focusing on core objectives; building distributional strength, driving vertical integration, identifying trends, rationalisation of low margin brands and creating consumer activations with the core purpose of building strong brand equity. Investment in production capability, especially distilling, brewing and sourcing, has stimulated development of higher quality products with a point of difference.
