

Whitley Neill Japanese Blossom & Lemongrass

England

Typ: SpritGin

Om produkten: Whitley Neill Japanese Blossom & Lemongrass är en frisk och aromatisk gin där delikata blommor från japanska körsbärsblommor möter den friska, citriga tonen av citrongräs. Kombinationen ger en lätt, elegant och komplex gin som lyfter cocktails med både blommighet och frisk syrlighet.

Producent: Halewood International

Om producenten: Halewood Wines & Spirits has grown from a small a start-up, to becoming the UK's largest independent drinks manufacturer and distributor by volume.

In the last three years, the company has embarked upon a huge transformational change. It has created an artisanal spirits and craft beer portfolio via acquisition and organic growth. This has propelled the business forward by focusing on core objectives; building distributional strength, driving vertical integration, identifying trends, rationalisation of low margin brands and creating consumer activations with the core purpose of building strong brand equity. Investment in production capability, especially distilling, brewing and sourcing, has stimulated development of higher quality products with a point of difference.
